Montréal Communiqué

For release at will.

TWO WOMEN NOMINATED

TO YMCA METRO BOARD

Two women, a university professor and a free-lance broadcaster, are among this year's nominees to the Metropolitan Board of the Montreal YMCA.

They are Mrs. Muriel Armstrong of Sir George Williams University's Department of Economics and Madame Jeanne Sauve, a well-known expert in public affairs.

Elections to this policy-making body will be held on the evening of Monday, October 6, 1969, immediately after the Montreal YMCA's 117th annual meeting, which is scheduled to run from 6:00 - 8:15 p.m.

Other new nominees as directors of the Greater Montreal Association are:

C. A. Duff, Vice-President and Managing Director, Henry Birks & Sons Ltd.

L. Y. Fortier, a partner in the legal firm of Ogilvy, Cope, Porteous, Hansard, Marler, Montgomery and Renault.
